Hi Viola, I am very please to hear from you. I am still helping the children, some of the children to learn how to played the harmonicas in music lessons, that is every Thursdays before school lessons are over for the day.

I used to write the songs on the blackboard, then taught them how sing the songs. All the books are in good order. Unless you have new songs to add us, then you are welcomewith them, I have new songs which I learn during my one month Eco-village Design Education {EDE} courses. Last month of March.

Greetings from Philip Jassej and all the boys and girls in scouting. I normally check my Emails and facebook on Wednesdays and Saturdays. I enjoyed seeing you plus your contact friends on facebook and others.

Regards From Sang.
